NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON
COMPANY’S REQUEST TO INCREASE ELECTRIC RATES FOR THE 2020
ENERGY RESOURCE RECOVERY ACCOUNT REVIEW
APPLICATION A.21-04-001

On April 1, 2021, Southern California Edison Company (SCE) filed its Energy Resource Recovery Account (ERRA) Review application with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) requesting a total of $60.772 million. If the CPUC approves this application, SCE would recover this amount in electric rates beginning in 2022.

Why is SCE requesting this rate increase?

Every year, SCE is required to file its ERRA Review application on April 1 for the CPUC’s review. In 2020, four authorized SCE memorandum and/or balancing accounts had an under-collection of funds that were necessary to cover costs. As a result, SCE is requesting a net revenue recovery that would increase customers’ rates by approximately $0.50 per month.

How could this affect my monthly electric rates?

If SCE’s rate request is approved by the CPUC, the average residential monthly bill using 500 kilowatt-hours (kWh) per month would increase by approximately $0.50 or 0.4% per month, from $122.59 to $123.09. The following table shows current rates compared to the proposed rate changes by customer group.

How does the rest of this process work?

This application will be assigned to a CPUC Administrative Law Judge who will consider proposals and evidence presented during the formal hearing process. The Administrative Law Judge will issue a proposed decision that may adopt SCE's application, modify it, or deny it. Any CPUC Commissioner may sponsor an alternate decision with a different outcome. The proposed decision, and any alternate decisions, will be discussed and voted upon by the CPUC Commissioners at a public CPUC Voting Meeting.

Parties to the proceeding are currently reviewing SCE's application, including the Public Advocates Office, which is an independent consumer advocate within the CPUC that represents customers to obtain the lowest possible rate for service consistent with reliable and safe service levels. For more information about the Public Advocates Office, please call 1-415-703-1584, email PublicAdvocatesOffice@cpuc.ca.gov, or visit PublicAdvocates.cpuc.ca.gov.
